

Shipmates,

These images of our USS Halibut Anniversary 2010 memorabilia coin and mug are FYI only. They are of the actual subjects, and not a graphic representation. However, I am not a pro photog and do not have the proper photo, imaging (whatever) equipment to make these "Magazine Ready". What this means is that they look much better in person- actually I believe the coin will "knock your sox off" when you actually see it. The mugs ain't bad either.
